

Applications should be submitted to the
University of Waterloo Political Science Graduate
Studies Office, HH 314

Balsillie Fellowships

Deadline: February 12th, 2010

Jim Balsillie, Co-CEO of Research in Motion, has donated funds through The Centre for International Governance Innovation (CIGI) to create the Balsillie Fellowships. Balsillie Fellowships valued at $15,000 (for master's) and $25,000 (for doctoral) annually will be awarded to graduate students in the Master's and PhD programs in Global Governance who satisfy the eligibility requirements for the University of Waterloo Graduate Scholarship. This form is only to be used by students applying to the Global Governance Programs at the University of Waterloo. All students applying to the Global Governance programs are required to submit an application for the Balsillie Fellowship with their program application. Selection will be made by a committee chaired by the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies, Faculty of Arts.

This application must be accompanied by an updated CV and copies of unofficial transcripts

Surname: _____

Given Names: _____

ID# _____

Dept/Program Applying For: _____

Telephone Number: (Home) _____

UW Ext. _____

Email address: _____

Program: MA PhD

Registration Status: Full-time Part-time

Fee Status: Canadian

Permanent Resident

International Student

Number of terms completed in your current program: _____

Overall average: current program _____ previous program _____

Scholarships received:

Research Proposal (please attach to this application). This may be the same as your research proposal for your application to the Waterloo graduate program.

I understand that, if I am awarded a Balsillie Fellowship, I will adhere to the following conditions of the award:

1. The award holder could be supervised by a CIGI fellow who may or may not be their current supervisor.
2. The award holder is expected to spend 20% of their research time (55 days per year) at CIGI (for master's)
3. The award holder is expected to involve themselves in research and policy-oriented CIGI events pertaining to their work (for doctoral).

Signature of Applicant

Date

Approval:

Supervisor

Date

Associate Dean, Graduate Studies, Arts

Date